4. Statistical information is important, but what volunteers do is an essential component of the annual report. Please describe general duties performed by volunteers. Please include a position title, and if there are several unique positions, please summarize each category separately.

   Please see the enclosed Position Description attachment for a copy of last year's description, which you may cut & paste directly into this year's response.

5. Please list the expected commitment level such as weekly/monthly hours, duration, etc. for each volunteer category that you entered on page 2.

6. If available, please describe new, unique and/or innovative ways in which you have tapped into the time, talents or expertise of volunteers over the past year.

7. If available, please share an impact statement such as the ones listed below that applies to volunteer involvement during FY 2011/12.

   - Volunteer attorneys completed 153 jury trials, 28 court trials, 679 preliminary hearings and 323 motions.
   - Approximately 2,500 pounds of trash and debris was removed from flood control channels/creeks during 3 volunteer clean-up days.

8. Success stories afford the opportunity to step back and celebrate achievements both big and small. If available, please briefly describe a success story involving one or more volunteers over the past year.

9. Please list any volunteer-related recognition/award received by an individual volunteer, a volunteer group and/or by your volunteer program during FY 2011/12. Recognition may be at a local, county, state, federal, national and/or international level.

   Please include the exact title of the recognition/award, the date that it was presented and the recipient's name. If there are numerous recipients for a specific award, you may list the number of volunteers/groups recognized rather than entering individual names.

10. Please share program goals for FY 2012/13.

11. Is there additional information that you would like to include in the FY 2011/12 report and/or are there issues related to volunteer utilization that have not been adequately addressed in this survey?
