PUBLIC WORKSHOP

Helping Your Loved One Manage Clutter, Hoarding, and Compulsive Acquiring

This 3-hour presentation is for family members and friends who are looking for a way to help their loved one with a hoarding problem. The presentation covers treatment options for the problem, explains why people develop hoarding behaviors and introduces harm reduction as a pragmatic approach to help your loved one manage a severe hoarding problem when he or she is unsafe and yet unwilling to accept treatment or help.

Speaker: Michael Tompkins, PhD

San Francisco Bay Area Center for Cognitive Therapy and author of:
