Rules

- 1. Parking passes and parking decals are effective from January 1 through December 31 of the calendar year issued.
- 2. Only the current-year parking decals shall be displayed. Parking citations will be issued if current-year parking decals are not properly affixed to the front windshield of your vehicle.
- 3. Lost or stolen passes and/or decals will not be replaced.
- 4. Damaged parking decals will be replaced if returned to the place of purchase.
- 5. Disabled: Proof of disability based on State Vehicle Code or California State Parks Pass is required to be eligible for discounted fees.
- 6. Distinguished Veterans are veterans: 1) with a 50% or higher service-connected disability, 2) who were held as prisoners of war or 3) who are recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor. Documentation to verify Distinguished Veteran status can be in either:
 - a valid "Distinguished Veteran Pass" issued by the California Department of Parks and Recreation, or
 - a confirming letter from the Department of Veterans Affairs.
